FOUR-DIMENSIONAL FACETS OF KNOT THEORY

CORNELIA VAN COTT
INDIANA UNIVERSITY

We consider the types of surfaces that knots bound in the four-dimensional ball B^4. This leads us to define an equivalence relation on knots called concordance. The set of equivalence classes of concordant knots forms a group. We will introduce this group and discuss its structure, highlighting results of Milnor, Fox, and Levine.